Men's weaknesses are often necessary to the purposes of life.

Happiness is good. The place to be happy is here. The time to be happy is now. The way to be happy is to help make others happy.

Life's perhaps the only riddle that we shrink from giving up.

Beauty is in the eye of the beholder.

A friend is a person with whom I may be sincere. Before him, I may think aloud.

Mrs. Roy Elder

Mr. Wayne Hobbs

You, the youth of our nation, are its greatest resource. How well parents and teachers assist you in your development will determine the quality of our culture and society of tomorrow.

These few years which you spend in Richland School will determine your future. The future always has many uncertainties. I am sure many of you are beginning to feel the pressures of what lies ahead. Work hard and prepare yourself! By doing this, you can eliminate many of those uncertainties.

Keep up the good work! It is a pleasure to be your principal. GOOD LUCK!

Sincerely,

Wayne Hobbs

Last Will And Testament

In an effort to distribute our worldly goods so that we will not remove from Richland High School all our valued attributes, We, the Seniors of 1983-84, do hereby declare this to be our last will and testament.

I, Elinore Ables, will to Richland High School and Mrs. White peace for I am the last of the Ables.

I, Miriam Lee Alexander, leave my fun times at RHS to my three little nieces, Cynthia, Chanda and Tracy, and what little speed I have to Lynnette Braden. I leave all my sayings, such as "Well good" and "How about it" to Valeria Duke. "Good-bye, Richland." "Hello, reality."

I, Peggy Armstrong, will my senior top locker to my sister, Lisa.

I, Kimberly Barr, of sound mind and body, leave my English notes to Sonya Johnson, who dreadfully needs them. I leave my locker #189 to Lisa Foster. To Tracy Wells, I leave my Vitamin V. I leave all my love to Keith.

I, Fred Bell, do hereby leave my hard times with my '72 Chevelle and my good grades to my sister, Beth. My slow and careful driving techniques I leave to my two hot-rod brothers, Rick and Ronnie. I leave my ability to irritate my mother and all my love I leave to Connie Smith.

I, Jamie Bird, will my seat on bus #8 to any fool that dares to ride that bus. To Mr. Martin, I leave my baseball uniform and position to be given to anyone he wants to have them. I give to Mrs. White all my Jerry Clower tapes which are to be shared with Mr. Trigg and Mr.

I, John Bowles, will my ability to break both of my ankles in consecutive years to any athlete who wishes to do so.

I, Nina Boyd, leave Karen Wheeler, my adopted sis, many memories, a big thank you and much love and happiness in life. To mom and dad, I leave a special thanks for all their love and support. To Tanna and T.J. Edwards many wonderful memories to come and my nickname, "Shortie," to anyone tall enough to fit it.

I, Brenda Braden, will all my classes to my cousins, Sabra, Wilda and Tim, and all my love to Frankie.

I, Carolyn Bryant, hereby leave my little sister, Charleen, three more years of "old man" Bledsoe. I wish Tammy, Kathy, Stacey and Annette good luck. To the people that have made my years at Richland tolerable, Mr. Brewer, Mr. Hollis and Mr. Bramlett, I say, "Thank you." I. Lisa Bryant, leave my good grades to Joy and Jeff; my happy times at Richland I leave to Lisa W. and Melissa Helms. All my love I leave to Mike Glover.

I, April Calkins, leave to my brother, Brian, the ability to carry on the Calkin's name until his senior year and the ability to relax and act crazy. I also, leave my locker to whoever is lucky enough to receive it and is capable of leaving it the way it is — messy.

I, John Cavanaugh, will nothing.

I, Michael Childress, will all the mornings that Tim Walls and I have come in late to anyone who can get by with it.

I, Betsie Collier, do hereby will my Simon and Garfunkel to Louie, a great friend. I will my undying friendship to Michael S. I wish everyone could find the love and friends I have found here. I leave this advice, "Grasp the moment because nothing gold can stay."

I, Amy Collins, will all my love to Shay and Steve. I will my ability to pass to my sister Tracy, and to my family, teachers and friends, I want to say "Thanks" for all your support.

I, Dexter Collins, will all my books and grades to anyone who wants them, and to Mrs. Brown, I leave a well-deserved "Thank you" for her help and support.

I, Patrick Davis, leave R.A. my welding ability as well as a warning to the world that the class of "84" is on the loose.

I, Paul Dempsey, will my Junior G. Man X-ray glasses and secret decoder to Charlie H. and my paper clip collection to Steven H.

I, Harolene Dickey, will to Nina and Gina the ability to do most anything in about thirty minutes and to Bo the good fortune to follow in my footsteps. To Lynn (Grace), I leave my "poetry in motion", and to Tommy, I leave the best gift of all, "myself".

I, Debra Ditty, will all of my good times at Richland High to my sisters, Christy and Kim. To my good friends Karen, Becky and Darryl, I will all the happiness life can bring and a special thank-you to my mom for her love and understanding.

I, Larry Everly, will my football skills to Derrick Braden, and may he use them well.

I, Steve Everly, will all my times with the Giles County Police Department and Judge Jerome Abernathy to Gina Ashford and Nina Jay Dickey.

I, Johnny Farrar, leave my height to Brian Wallace for quarterbacking, and to Kim Newton I leave my good times at RHS. Scott, you can have Fred. P.S. Coach Chunn, you can have the "bags" back. I, Gregg Foster, leave my seat in Mrs. White's English class to my cousin, Derek, and pray that he doesn't go through the misery I did. I also leave my F.F.A. office and good times in drama to Monty.

I, Todd Foster, leave my base-stealing ability to Scott Vernon. To the rest of the junior class, I wish good luck with Mrs. White, and finally to Mr. Martin, I give thanks for three terrific baseball seasons.

For want of something clever to say, I, Kay Gahring, hereby will everything from Richland with a serious aspect to those who have not the courage to become individuals and accept themselves for what they are and not for what others want them to be.

I, John Garner, will my ability to pass to my youngest brother, Tommy, because he needs it. My little black truck I leave to my brother, Robert, so that he can skip school, and to Beverly D., I leave the ability to pass under Mrs. White, which "Ain't easy."

I, Sheri Garrett, will my height to my sister who'll need it on the basketball court next year. My "Bama" jersey I will to Mr. Brewer and my eternal thanks to Mom and Dad for "hangin" in there."

I, Michael Lane Gibson, of unsound mind and half-sound body, leave all my Lynard Skynard tapes to Gilbert House. I leave all the rest of my tapes to Brian Schrader. To my niece, Cayce Jo Gibson, I leave my seat on the bus. To the faculty of RHS, I leave ALONE.

I, Karen Gilmore, will to Debbie Johnson and Kim Holley all my insanity and control so they may make it through another year. To Sherry Johnson, I will the ability to keep her hands to herself and off the guys. To Danny Hardy I will my seat on the bus.

I, Kristy Glass, will to my younger sister Misty and my brother, Fred all the joyful memories of their high school years as I have mine, and to have the good fortune to have the special friends that I have had. Many happy school years to Mary Ann and Allen Pierce, Trina, Carla and Ryan Doubs.

I, Freda Glossup, leave my ability to anyone who can not get caught talking in class like I always did, and I leave all my love to a special person, Butch.

I, Lydia Greene, will to David Wells my driving ability, to Darin Rice I leave a stick of gum, and to Susan Morris and Claudia Payne I leave the wish of retiring my sewing box. To Mrs. White and Mr. Hollis I leave my brother, Jim, so they will always remember me.

I, Jeff Harmond, leave to myself the ability to pass Mrs. White's and Mr. Hollis' English classes next year.

I, Melissa Jean Helms, will all of the good times I have had at Richland to anyone who is not fortunate enough to have them.

I, Matt Hickman, will my ability to skip school to my cousin, Harvy, and my position on the football team back to Willie Hurd because he left it to me.

To Scott Vernon I leave my strut because he will need it. P.S. Coach Chunn, you can have the "bags" back!

- I, Stevie D. Higgins, will my ability to get a speeding ticket every time I go to town to anyone who drives like I do. To Beth I leave all the wild cherry bubble gum that she can chew, and that's a lot.
- I, Angee Hill, being of reasonably sound mind, do hereby leave my ability to go through the twelve grades to my little sister, Amanda Hill. I, Laura Holland, will to my younger brother the great honor of having Mr. Mitchell's classes, accepting his cruel comments and liking him anyway.
- I, Glenda Gail Hood, hereby will my ability to pass all my classes with fair grades without studying much to Robert Dickey and Amanda Hill. Also, I will all my love to Robert Dickey. To Jeff Hood I will my ability to pass all four years of high school without failing any classes. I, Patricia Horne, will my basketball suit, number "IO", to anyone who can keep the same size all four years and my softball suit, which is also number "IO", to anyone who wants to wait until their junior and senior years to play. Good luck to Nina, Gina, Lynn and Carla . . . you're going to need it. A "Thanks" to Coach Clark.
- I, Lisa Howell, will all my ability to grade papers for Mrs. White and make as many mistakes as possible to whoever is her little "serf" next year. To Joey and Julie I will all the good times ahead at RHS, and to Daryel I will all my love.
- I, Treva Hunt, having worked in the library at Richland High School, leave having enjoyed every minute of it.
- I, Mari LeMay, will all the great memories and crazy times at RHS to Bobbie Cates, Durb H., Keith W. and Gilbert H. To Shannon Tarpley, I leave my locker which she enjoyed more than I did. To Mr. Bramlett, I leave another two years with Bobbie and Durb.
- I, Russell Lewis, being of unsound mind and little body, do hereby leave my driving skills to anyone who wants to die at an early age. I leave my dust mop to Vaughn Rhea. To Coach Clark I leave my job half-done and to the teachers my brother, Brent, for the next four years. I, Stephen Llewellyn, of sound mind, will my warped sense of humor and my musical capabilities to King Hippie. Also, I give my thanks for the influence of Lynard Skynard.
- I, James Lovett, leave to my brother the ability to get along with Mrs. Foster and avoid her evil eye.
- I, Mike Maggard, leave anything and everything that anybody wants and my ability to go through basketball practice day after day.
- I, Keith Malone, will my ability to play football as well as I did to Herbert Gilbert, and I leave my ability to block to Derrick Braden. I leave the "Smurf" to anyone who can do it. P.S. Coach Chunn, you can have the "bags" back!
- I, Greg McNeese, will all my good times at RHS to Dwight Briggs and Lisa Howell.
- I, Sheila Mitchell, will nothing to anyone since I have nothing to leave.
- I, Laura Newton, leave my little brother, Terry, to all the teachers that can put up with him. To Christie Bledsoe I leave all my good times at RHS. All my love I will to Greg. To the teachers, "Thanks" for all the memories and the support through the high school years.
- I, Paula Parker, will to Mrs. Foster, my favorite bottle of perfume since she enjoys the fragrance so much and my front row seat in typing to anyone who runs his mouth like I do.
- I, Steve Putnam, will my speed to Scott Vernon and my position on the football team to anyone Coach Chunn puts there.
- I, Chad Riggins, will all of my love to Rhonda Bolden, who I will always love to the day I die, and all of my "know how" to Mrs. Brown.
- I, Tommy Risner, leave to Randy, Scottie, Gerald, Billy and Donnie my ability to cut classes and skip school. Also, I leave my old American History book to whoever can find the pages to it. P.S. I leave to Richland a picture of my pretty face.
- I, Vicki Nelson Risner, will my ability (which ain't much) to graduate from Richland High School with a lot of smiles and friendships to my sisters Becky and Kim. To my husband Jimmy and my son Chad I leave my love.
- I, Sheila Robinson, will my love and special thanks to Kerry for all of his support and care.
- I, Brad Rose, will my ability to get to school on time to Chris and Derrick Dickey.
- I, Randy Shrader, do hereby will to Mrs. White and Mr. Brewer the "Favorite Teachers Award" and to my sister, Rosie, my back seat on the bus.
- I, Julie Sims, leave my brush, purse and my glasses to Mrs. Foster and Mrs. White because they kept up with them more than I did. I leave Mr. Brewer all the headaches that he gave me, and last, but not least, I leave all of my knowledge to anyone that doesn't plan to do anything after high school.
- I. Edie Stewart, will my great ability for passing English to my future sister-in-law, Little Lucy (Tonya) and all my love to Tony Yokley. I. Jerry Street, will my nickname, "Joe Duram", to anyone who wants it. I leave all the good times at RHS to Matt and Bubba if they need them.
- I. Todd Sullivan, will to "my boy," Bubba Sims, the ability to play football like his "daddy," who taught him everything he knows. To Mr. Trigg, I leave all my Jerry Clower records because he never told the jokes right.
- I. Kerry Tomlinson, will to all my teachers, past and present, an E for effort and many thanks. All else I'm taking with me for future reference.
- I, Tommy Ussery, being of sound mind and body hereby leave the "L" to Dennis Archer, and Charlie Helton and I hope the "L" will continue to prevail.
- I. Wanda June Vick, will my grades to my sister, Annette Vick, even though she may do better without them and my love to Tim Risner, whom I'll love forever.
- I, Tim Walls, will all the days that Michael Childress, Steve Putnam and I were late for class to Keith Walls if he ever gets his driver's license and a car.
- I, Rechelle White, will all my great abilities to Bubba Sims if he can figure out what they are, I leave the good times I've had at Richland to my "cuz" Gina A., Matt J., Nina D. and Lynn S. To Coach Clark, I leave my smile since he never uses his.
- I, Patricia Telfer Woodard, leave behind all my times good and bad to anybody that wants them.
- I, Carol Worsham, do hereby will all English notes and notebooks I can sneak out from Mrs. White to K. Holley, and to Gina Ashford I will the ability not to get suckered into buying a "green Vega."
- I, Robert Worsham, will my ability to skip school to Jim K.
- I, Lisa Wright, leave to Ricky my determination and fair grades. To Mr. Hobbs and Mr. Hollis I leave a supply of nerve pills.
- I, Richard Young, leave to all the teachers four aspirins because they have two more "Youngs" to go. I leave L.H. my back seat on the bus, my welding skills to G.S. and D.P. and to M.J.M., a dip of skoal.
- This ends our Last Will and Testament which has been signed and witnessed upon the twenty-sixth day of May nineteen hundred and eighty-three.

Time it was and what a time it was. It was A time of innocence, A time of confidences. Long ago, it must be, I have a photograph. Preserve your memories. They're all that's left you. This page is dedicated to the memory of David Little. Born April 7, 1966; died July 3, 1983. "Only the good die young."

Nature's first green is gold,
Her hardest hue to hold.
Her early leaf's a flower,
But only so an hour.
So leaf subsides to leaf,
So Eden sank to grief.
So dawn goes down to day,
Nothing gold can stay.

Robert Frost

I'd like to thank all my friends for their support and love. I'll always look back on these years with warmth. My sincere gratitude to my teachers who have put up with my hyper antics. I'll miss all of you. Grasp the moment, because all you'll have left is memories.

Betsie Collier, Editor
